

Smart Meters

The Government is committed to rolling out smart meters to all homes and businesses before 2020, however research has shown that a huge percentage of the population are still not aware of the options available.

Please see links to information for both Households (Domestic) and Businesses (Non-Domestic), if you have not already had a smart meter installed.